1. Admission Policy

Hiroshima City University (HCU) develops professionals having sensitivity and passion toward seeking the truth, respecting diverse cultures and values, and wishing for lasting world peace. HCU also aims to train students to become professionals who have the ability to contribute to both the local and global communities, with a wide-ranging knowledge and solid expertise, as well as a strong sense of ethics.

For the purpose of nurturing such competent professionals, HCU seeks to admit:

- Persons who are well rounded and have a strong enthusiasm for learning
- Persons who are intellectually curious, inquisitive, and eager to create and utilize new knowledge
- Persons who wish to contribute positively to world peace and the development of local communities and the international community

The Graduate School of International Studies seeks to admit:

- Persons who can try to investigate, objectively analyze the background and causes of the various issues both in the local and global communities, and propose a solution using a professional approach
- Persons who can think about their expertise logically and persuasively for deepening thoughts and debate
- Persons who have the basic knowledge regarding the research field and the adequate language skills for research, as well as the desire to deepen their professional knowledge and research skills for their future work
- Persons who wish to improve their skills and potentials through learning at this Graduate School

2. Degrees Conferred

The Doctoral Program of Graduate School of International Studies confers “Doctor of Philosophy,” “Doctor of Philosophy (International Studies),” or “Doctor of Philosophy (Peace Studies),” according to the research field and topics of each student’s doctoral thesis.

Note 3: If a document in (6) and (7) is written in a language other than Japanese or English, be sure to attach its Japanese or English translation.

Note 4: If a document is not prepared as instructed in "How to Prepare" column (for example, information is omitted, translation is not attached, etc.), the application may not be accepted.

Note 5: Persons who are subject to a preliminary review and have already submitted the documents specified above in (6) to (11) do not have to resubmit the documents.

6) Return of examination fee

Paid examination fees will be returned (refunded) in the cases below. However, any service fees that arise in connection with the return will be paid by the remitter (applicant).

- ① When a person paid the examination fee but did not apply
- ② When a person mistakenly paid the examination fee twice or mistakenly paid more than the prescribed amount
- ③ When a person submitted the application documents but the application was not accepted

7) Waiver for the entrance examination fee

If it is deemed to be extremely difficult for a person of Hiroshima City to pay the entrance examination fee, that person may be subject to a waiver for the entrance examination fee.

Consult with the Admissions Office in advance and apply before the deadline.

Note: "Person of Hiroshima City" refers to persons who correspond to either of the following cases.

- a. Person who has continually had an address within Hiroshima City since October 1, 2022 or before
- b. Person whose spouse or relative in the first degree of kinship has continually had an address (Resident registration) within Hiroshima City since October 1, 2022 or before
- c. Person otherwise deemed by this university to correspond to the above
- d. If the Admissions Office needs to contact the examinee, it will notify you when the admission ticket is sent. If the Admissions Office urgently needs to contact the examinee, it will be posted on the Hiroshima City University website (<https://www.hiroshima-cu.ac.jp/>).

[Application deadline]

Must arrive by 5:00 p.m. on May 17 (Tue), 2022

8) Precautions when applying

- (1) If you do not submit all of the required documents, your application will not be accepted. Carefully check when applying.
- (2) After the application documents have been accepted, changes to application items will not be permitted. If, however, your name, address, and/or telephone number changes, promptly contact the Admissions Office.
- (3) Once accepted, application documents and entrance examination fees will not be returned. However, we can return your Master's degree thesis, etc., after reviewing your academic abilities if you wish. Please state so when you apply.
- (4) If an application document entry is found to be incorrect, even after the applicant's admission has been approved, said admission may be revoked.

6. Special measures for applicants affected disaster

Applicants affected by disaster can apply to have their entrance examination fees refunded after submitting their admission application (entrance examination fees must be transferred when making their application). Also, successful applicants can apply to have their admission fees partially waived.

The application procedure requires an HCU designated application form and documents that verify the claim. For details, inquire with the Admissions Office or check the university's website.

7. Prior consultation for persons requesting considerations in examination or study

Persons who would like considerations in examination or study, such as persons with disabilities, should prepare an application and consult with the Admissions Office.

We will supply the application form upon request.
