1. Admission Policy

Hiroshima City University aims to foster human resources who have rich sensibilities and creativity, who possess enthusiasm for seeking truth, who respect a diversity of cultures and values, and who aspire to create a world of peace. We also devote our efforts to develop those who are equipped with the capability to broadly contribute to society, utilizing a broad range of general knowledge, advanced and specialized knowledge, and a high level of ethics.

To this end, the following persons are welcome to enroll in our university.

- Individuals who have a rich sense of humanity, and who have a strong desire for learning.
- Individuals who have high academic interests and a deep intellectual curiosity, and who aspire to create and utilize new knowledge.

Ideal candidates for this program are:

- Individuals who have a broad education and keen interest in various regional and global issues.
- Individuals who have the skills of reading, thinking, and expressing themselves at the level required for attending graduate school.
- Individuals who have basic knowledge in research categories of the Graduate School of International Studies and who desire to enhance their specialized knowledge and research capabilities.
- Individuals who desire to contribute actively to building world peace and promoting local and international community development.

2. Degrees Conferred

The master degree program confers “Master of Arts,” “Master of Arts in International Studies,” or “Master of Arts in Peace Studies,” depending on the content of the master thesis of each student and the courses he or she has taken.

3. Number of Students to Be Admitted

Department	Enrollment	Number of students to be admitted
Graduate School of International Studies (Master Course Department of International Studies)	15 persons	Limited-Openings

4. Application Qualifications

Applicants must meet all the following requirements and must have graduated from an overseas university that has concluded an International Academic Exchange Agreement with Hiroshima City University (“partner institution”) and have obtained a bachelor’s degree, or be expected to graduate from a partner institution by March 31, 2021.

- 1) A person who can obtain recommendations from two or more faculty members (including the head of the university department or faculty) in the partner institution attended.
- 2) A person who has the ability to write a paper in Japanese or English.

* Classes for the Master Degree Program will be conducted in Japanese. Regarding Peace Studies, however, students are allowed to obtain a master degree by taking classes conducted in English and writing a master thesis in English, if they wish.

5. Application Procedures

(1) Prior Consultation

Prior to submitting an application, applicants need to seek consultation about their intended research themes from a faculty member they wish to work with. For details on faculty members and their research fields, please refer to the Hiroshima City University website.

For seeking prior consultation, applicants are required to send an e-mail with the subject line “Prior Consultation for Partner University Recommendation-Based Entrance Exam (Master Course)” to the Admissions Office (nyushi@m.hiroshima-cu.ac.jp). The e-mail must include: (1) the name of the applicant, (2) the university in which he/she is enrolled or from which he/she graduated, and (3) the name of a faculty member he/she wishes to work with.

(2) Application Period

November 6 (Fri) to 5:00 p.m. (Japan Standard time), November 26 (Thu), 2020

(3) Application Methods

After consultation with a faculty member you wish to work with, please enclose all application documents in an envelope and submit it by mail to the Admissions Office by the deadline. Be sure to write in red “Application Documents Enclosed for Partner University Recommendation-Based Entrance Exam” on the envelope. After the deadline, the examination admission card will be sent to each applicant. If you do not receive the documents by the day immediately before the announcement of the results, please contact the Admissions Office.

* You are recommended to use Express Mail Service (EMS) to send the application documents to us.

* If you are an applicant who has graduated from a partner institution and are residing in Japan, please contact the Admissions Office concerning your application.

(4) Exemption from Examination Fee

Applicants who undergo entrance exams under the International Academic Exchange Agreement Program shall be exempt from the entrance examination fee.

(5) Choosing between “Master Thesis” and “Research Paper”

In this Graduate School, students can select either a "Master's Thesis" or a "Research Report" for the creation of a thesis, which is one requirement for graduation. In light of the diversification of needs regarding research and education carried out at graduate schools, this system aims to encourage not only highly academic research, but also the acquisition of Master's degrees by graduate students aiming to improve their expert professional capabilities or acquire advanced cultivation and education. This system is characterized by the following.

- A "Master's Thesis" aims to create a highly academic expert thesis. Conversely, a "Research Report" is for carrying out research with a specific topic set regarding an expert professional field or the like.
- If you would like to advance from the Master's Degree Program to the Doctoral Degree Program in this Graduate School, we recommend that you have a "Master's Thesis".
- Make your selection for a "Master's Thesis" or "Research Report" when submitting your application documents. Select either one in the subscribed location on the "Entrance Application Form". You can make your selection without regard to your entrance examination category.
- If you would like to change your selection after entering the Graduate School, changes may be permitted, but this requires permission from your supervisor.

- * When selecting either a "Master's Thesis" or "Research Report", consult with your desired supervisor before making your application.
