1. Admission Policy

Hiroshima City University (HCU) Graduate School aims to foster and nurture individuals who possess rich sensitivity and a passion for the pursuit of truth, who respect diverse cultures and values, and who aspire to peace. Furthermore, it seeks to cultivate professionals with cutting-edge and advanced expertise, profound knowledge, and the ability to identify, analyze, and solve problems, while being guided by a strong sense of ethics, thereby enabling them to make meaningful and broad contributions to society.

For the purpose of nurturing such competent professionals, HCU Graduate School seeks to admit:

- Persons who are well rounded and have a strong enthusiasm for learning.
- Persons who are intellectually curious, inquisitive, and eager to create and utilize new knowledge.
- Persons who wish to contribute positively to world peace and the development of local communities and the international community.

The Graduate School of International Studies Doctoral Program seeks following applicants:

- Those who wish to pursue advanced professional research and tackle the challenges facing local and global communities.
- Those who seek to enrich their expertise and possess the logic and persuasiveness to deepen their thinking and discussion.
- Those who have advanced knowledge in their field of research, sufficient language skills for research activities, and the desire to further enhance their specialized knowledge and research abilities.
- Those who wish to strive for self-improvement through specialized research at this graduate school.
