1. Admission Policy

Hiroshima City University (HCU) Graduate School aims to foster and nurture individuals who possess rich sensitivity and a passion for the pursuit of truth, who respect diverse cultures and values, and who aspire to peace. Furthermore, it seeks to cultivate professionals with cutting-edge and advanced expertise, profound knowledge, and the ability to identify, analyze, and solve problems, while being guided by a strong sense of ethics, thereby enabling them to make meaningful and broad contributions to society.

For the purpose of nurturing such competent professionals, HCU Graduate School seeks to admit:

- Persons who are well rounded and have a strong enthusiasm for learning.
- Persons who are intellectually curious, inquisitive, and eager to create and utilize new knowledge.
- Persons who wish to contribute positively to world peace and the development of local communities and the international community.

The Graduate School of International Studies Master's Degree Program seeks the following applicants:

- Those who seek to identify and solve issues facing local and global communities using professional approaches.
- Those who have basic knowledge in their field of research and the language skills necessary for research, and who are motivated to use their professional knowledge in their research or careers.
- Those who wish to strive for self-improvement through their studies at this graduate school.

2. Degrees Conferred

The Master's Degree Program of Graduate School of International Studies confers "Master of Arts".

3. Number of Applicants to Be Admitted

Department	Recruitment category	Number of students to be recruited
International Studies	Recommendation-Based Exam for Institutions with International Academic Exchange Agreement	A Few

4. Application Qualifications

Applicants must meet all the following requirements and must have graduated from an overseas university that has concluded an International Academic Exchange Agreement with Hiroshima City University ("partner institution") and have obtained a bachelor's degree or be expected to graduate from a partner institution by September 30, 2026.

- 1) A person who can obtain recommendations from two or more faculty members (including the Dean of the department or faculty) in the partner institution attended.
- 2) A person who has the ability to write the Master thesis in Japanese or English.

5. Application Procedures

(1) Prior Consultation

Before applying, applicants need to seek consultation about their intended research themes from a faculty member they wish to supervise. Referring to "List of Faculty Members" on pages 7 and 8 or HCU website, select your desired supervisor.

For seeking prior consultation, applicants are required to send an e-mail with the subject line "Prior Consultation for Partner University Recommendation-Based Entrance Exam (Master Course)" to the Admissions Office (nyushi@m.hiroshima-cu.ac.jp). The e-mail must include: your name and the name of a faculty member you wish to supervise, and attach ② Curriculum Vitae and ⑧ Research plan data in "(7) Application Documentation".

[Inquiry deadline] April 24 (Fri), 2026

* If you would like to receive a prior consultation after the deadline, please contact HCU Admissions Office.

(2) Application Period

May 8 (Fri) to 20 (Wed), 2026 (Must arrive by 5:00 p.m. JST on final day)

(3) Submission of Application Documents

After consultation with a faculty member you wish to supervise, please enclose all application documents in an envelope and submit it by mail to the Admissions Office by the deadline. Be sure to write in red “Application Documents Enclosed for Partner University Recommendation-Based Entrance Exam” on the envelope.

* We recommend using a tracking service such as Express Mail Service (EMS) or DHL when mailing.

* If you are residing in Japan, please contact HCU Admissions Office concerning your application.

(4) Exemption from Examination Fee

The entrance examination fee is waived.

(5) Selection of either “Master’s Thesis” or “Research Report”

In this Graduate School, students can select either a "Master's Thesis" or a "Research Report", which is one requirement for graduation. In light of the diversification of needs regarding research and education carried out at graduate schools, this system aims to encourage not only highly academic research, but also the acquisition of Master's degrees aiming to improve their expert professional capabilities or acquire advanced education. This system is characterized by the following.

- A "Master's Thesis" aims to create a highly academic expert thesis.
- A "Research Report" is for carrying out research with a specific topic set regarding an expert professional field.
- If you would like to advance from the Master's Degree Program to the Doctoral Degree Program in this Graduate School, we recommend that you have a "Master's Thesis".
- Make your selection for a "Master's Thesis" or "Research Report" when submitting your application documents. Select either one in the subscribed location on the "Entrance Application Form".
- If you would like to change your selection after entering the Graduate School, changes may be permitted, but this requires permission from your supervisor.

* When selecting either a "Master's Thesis" or "Research Report", consult with your desired supervisor before making your application.
