Issued: September 2026

1. Admissions Policy

Hiroshima City University (HCU) Graduate School aims to foster and nurture individuals who possess rich sensitivity and a passion for the pursuit of truth, who respect diverse cultures and values, and who aspire to peace. Furthermore, it seeks to cultivate professionals with cutting-edge and advanced expertise, profound knowledge, and the ability to identify, analyze, and solve problems, while being guided by a strong sense of ethics, thereby enabling them to make meaningful and broad contributions to society.

In order to nurture such professionals, HCU Graduate School seeks to admit:

- Persons who are well rounded and have a deep love of learning
- Persons who are intellectually curious, inquisitive, and eager to create and utilize knowledge
- Persons who wish to contribute positively to world peace and the development of local communities and the international community

In addition, the Graduate School of Peace Studies Master's Degree Program seeks to admit:

- Persons who can investigate, and objectively and scientifically analyze the background and causes of international conflicts, global issues, and various other events
- For adults who have work experience, persons with a strong interest in peace, human rights, and democracy, and who, after scholastically redefining and deepening their knowledge and experience in creating and maintaining peace, are eager and enthusiastic about communicating effectively about these topics and using their knowledge in their future work
- Persons who can independently think about and study the systems and criteria necessary to create and maintain peace, and who are eager and enthusiastic about communicating their ideas both domestically and abroad from the standpoint of creating peace

2. Type of degree conferred

The Graduate School of Peace Studies Master's Degree Program will confer a "Master of Arts (Peace Studies)" degree.

* The degree can be completed in English.

(Top page > Admissions Information > Graduate School > Prior consultation if you wish to take the exam)

- * If a Medical Certificate is written in a language other than Japanese or English, be sure to attach a Japanese or English translation of it.
- * If you need to request considerations in examination urgently due to an unforeseen accident, please notify the Admissions Office as soon as possible. Depending on the timing and nature of your request, we may not be able to give you the request.
- * The information provided in the application form will be used by HCU to consider any necessary arrangements for examinations and studies. This information will not affect the admission decision.

8. Handling of personal information

Hiroshima City University has established the "Regulations Concerning the Protection of Personal Information at Hiroshima City University (Public University Corporation)" and is committed to the protection and appropriate management of personal information.

- (1) Personal information obtained at the time of application (name, date of birth, address, etc.) is used to conduct entrance examination (application processing and the administration of the selection process), announce successful applicants and carry out enrollment procedures.

In addition, personal information obtained at the time of application and examination scores used for student selection are utilized to review future student selection methods, improve university education, and manage university operations (including various surveys, analyses, and project planning).

- (2) Personal information regarding admitted students and the test scores used in the admissions selection process will be compiled into academic records (student registration records and official grade transcripts) and used to carry out operations related to academic affairs (management of student registration and grades, academic guidance, etc.), student support (health management, career support, applications for tuition waivers and scholarships, etc.), and tuition collection.
- (3) In carrying out the various operations described in (1) and (2) above, all or part of such operations may be performed by a party commissioned by the University to perform the relevant operations (hereinafter referred to as the “Contractor”). In such cases, after entering into a contract with the Contractor to ensure the appropriate handling of personal information, we will provide all or part of the personal information collected at the time of application and the examination scores used for student selection, to the extent necessary for the Contractor to perform the commissioned operations.
- (4) If the Alumni Association or the Supporters’ Association—both affiliated organizations of the University—request the provision of personal information for the purpose of facilitating the confirmation of admitted students, the University may provide the names and other relevant information of those who have completed the enrollment procedures, provided that the purpose of use is clearly defined.

9. Preparation of Examination Environment

Please ensure that you complete all the preparations listed below (1) to (5) before the exam.

- (1) A bright and quiet private room where no third parties can enter (such as a seminar room, your home, or a rental space).
- (2) A stable internet environment capable of sending and receiving video.
- (3) A computer or similar device that can connect to the internet (equipped with a webcam, microphone, speakers, etc.).
- (4) A backup for the device mentioned in (3).
- (5) Install the Zoom application on the device you will use on the day of the exam and conduct a connection test in advance (including the backup device).

 - Zoom Help Center (<https://support.zoom.us/hc/en>)

10. Selection Procedures

(1) Examination Date (JST)

Examination Date	Exam Subject	Implementation method
Between November 24 (Tue) and December 4 (Fri), 2026, the exact date and time will be determined in consultation with the applicant.	Interview	The exam will be conducted online using “Zoom”.

(2) Examination and Evaluation Methods

Exam Subjects	Contents of the Academic Examination	Assessment Methods
Document review	Submitted documents, such as the results of Japanese or English language proficiency tests, the research proposal, the statement of purpose, etc. will be reviewed.	Based on the Admission Policy, applicants will be comprehensively evaluated on a three-level scale in terms of the knowledge and abilities required to attend lectures and fulfill the completion requirements of the Graduate School of Peace Studies, as well as their research motivation, willingness to learn, and overall suitability, etc.
Interview (About 30 minutes)	Based on the application documents, applicants will be asked about their motivation for applying, research plan, etc. * In principle, interviews will be conducted in Japanese (though English may be used depending on the field of specialization).

(3) Admission Criteria

Document review and Interview results are reviewed and evaluated comprehensively.

(4) Notes to applicants

- a. Details regarding the exam implementation will be provided when the Examination Number Notice is sent.
- b. Examinees must access the Zoom meeting by the meeting time for examinees and complete the connection to the waiting room.
- c. If you are not present in the examinee waiting room at the starting time of the exam, you will be treated as absent.
- d. Please have your Examination Number Notice (printed copy) ready at hand from meeting time until the end of examination.
- e. Please ensure that your settings are adjusted to prevent any interruptions to the exam due to unrelated phone calls, emails, or notifications from meeting time until the end of examination.
- f. Only the materials submitted as application documents are permitted to be on hand during the exam.
- g. You may be asked to show your surroundings on camera before or during the exam for the purpose of preventing cheating. Please be careful not to show anything related to your privacy.
- h. You are not allowed to leave the exam once it has started. If you leave, you will be disqualified.
- i. Any costs associated with taking the online exam (such as communication fees) will be borne by the examinee.
- j. If there is a need to communicate anything else to the examinees, it will be notified when the Examination Number Notice is sent. Additionally, if there are urgent matters to communicate to the examinees, they will be posted on HCU website or sent to the e-mail address provided on the application form.

11. Important Notes Regarding Misconduct

- (1) Engaging in impersonation during the exam or cheating (including bringing in reference materials other than those submitted as application documents, accessing web browsers (such as Google Chrome, Firefox, etc.) or social media (such as LINE, X, etc.) to view content related to the exam from meeting time until the end of examinations) and cooperating with other examinees, as well as any actions that compromise fairness with other examinees, such as recording or filming during the use of Zoom, will be considered malpractice, and the results of the entrance examination may be rendered invalid. Furthermore, even after enrollment, your admission may be revoked. In such cases, application documents, entrance examination fees, and admission fees will not be refunded.
- (2) If your gaze frequently shifts, we may check to confirm whether you are engaging in cheating or other forms of malpractice.
