Hiroshima City University

Issued: April 2023

1. Admissions policy

Hiroshima City University (HCU) develops professionals having sensitivity and passion toward seeking the truth, respecting diverse cultures and values, and wishing for lasting world peace. HCU also aims to train students to become professionals who have the ability to contribute to both the local and global communities, with a wide-ranging knowledge and solid expertise, as well as a strong sense of ethics.

For the purpose of nurturing such competent professionals, HCU seeks to admit:

- Persons who are well rounded and have a deep love of learning
- Persons who are intellectually curious, inquisitive, and eager to create and utilize knowledge
- Persons who wish to contribute positively to world peace and the development of local communities and the international community

The Graduate School of Peace Studies seeks to admit:

- Persons who can investigate, and objectively and scientifically analyze the background and causes of international conflicts, global issues, and various other events
- For adults who have work experience, persons with a strong interest in peace, human rights, and democracy, and who, after scholastically redefining and deepening their knowledge and experience in creating and maintaining peace, are eager and enthusiastic about communicating effectively about these topics and using their knowledge in their future work
- Persons who can independently think about and study the systems and criteria necessary to create and maintain peace, and who are eager and enthusiastic about communicating their ideas both domestically and abroad from the standpoint of creating peace

2. Type of degree conferred

The Graduate School of Peace Studies Master's Degree Program will confer a "Master of Arts (Peace Studies)" degree.
