HIROSHIMA and PEACE is a summer program organized by Hiroshima City University. Due to COVID-19, we will be organizing an online lecture series for summer 2021. The aim of this online lecture series is to provide participants with a general understanding of the nature and attributes of war and peace by illuminating various aspects of wartime experiences, including the atomic bombing of Hiroshima. At the same time, it also seeks to explore contemporary issues relating to world peace in a global era.

7.17 SAT

Robert JACOBS

Professor, Hiroshima Peace Institute / Graduate School of Peace Studies, Hiroshima City University

"The Manhattan Project, the Bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and the Development of Nuclear Weapons"

This lecture will present an overview of what a nuclear weapon is, how they were built, how the nuclear attacks on Hiroshima and Nagasaki were conducted and what the effects were. It will also present a quick survey of how nuclear weapons have changed since this first usage.

7.24 SAT

Keiko OGURA

Hibakusha Testimony in English

Keiko Ogura is a hibakusha, an atomic bomb survivor. She was eight years old and lived in Hiroshima when the atomic bomb was dropped in Hiroshima. She has given talks all over the world. In 1984, she was also one of the founders of the Hiroshima Interpreters for Peace.

7.31 SAT

Masae YUASA

Professor, Faculty of International Studies, Hiroshima City University

"Nuclear Power and Modernity: The Fukushima Disaster from a Sociological Perspective"

It has been 10 years since TEPCO's Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant accident occurred. This lecture updates information about the accident and discusses the modern characteristics of this nuclear disaster.

8. 7 SAT

Kyoko MATSUNAGA

Associate Professor, Graduate School of Letters, Hiroshima University

"Korean Hibakusha Narratives: From Ishimure Michiko to Han Soosan"

This lecture will explore the Korean Hibakusha experience in Japan. We will examine a variety of atomic bomb texts, focusing on the representations of Korean Hibakusha.

Registration is required.
We will limit participants to 90 people for each lecture.
